DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is a two and one half story frame house with a gable roof. On the front are three bays under a gable plus a polygonal bay under another gable. In the attic of each of these gables is a round arched window. Across the front is a one story porch supported by turned posts. This porch has a ballustrade and gallery, each with turned spindles. The gallery is supported by carved corner brackets with pierced work. This house has been altered by the addition of asphalt siding.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Typical late 19th century features of this house are the porch with a gallery and carved brackets, and the two story bay window on the front. Although altered by the addition of asphalt siding, this house is similar to many others of this era on Locust Street. It is unfortunate that many of these houses, reflective of middle class dwellings of this era, have been altered or are in need of paint.
